Hello again pianists & teachers!

I am not ashamed to tell you that I am a huge fan of Taylor Swift. I love the fact that she writes her own music and is on a crusade to make sure that streaming services pay artists appropriately. I like a girl who uses her star-power for good!

When "All Too Well"- the 10-minute version, arrived on the scene I asked my daughters if I was too old to be singing it in the car and they assured me that it was fine. ;)

I hope you and your students enjoy this chord chart as much as I have enjoyed preparing it for you.

Happy Playing!

Tips for teaching All Too Well

"All Too Well" was the standout hit when Taylor Swift released "Red~ Taylor's version" in 2021. Teen Swifties will be so pleased to know that you only need 4 chords to play one of their favorite break-up anthems.

A word of warning for teachers who aren't familiar with this song- you probably want to teach the original (shorter) version of All Too Well. The famed 10-minute version includes a big curse word that you likely don't want to have students singing. If you teach adults, that's between you and your student.

That C chord at the end is only necessary if you want to have an "ending" at the end of the chorus. Alternatively, there are a couple more verses.
