

Hello pianists & teachers,

I can't believe we haven't done an Ed Sheeran song yet!

There are quite a few Ed Sheeran songs that lend themselves really well to an acoustic performance. I picked Bad Habits only because it seems to be popular right now.

Listen to Ed perform his song HERE.

Happy playing!

Rhonda

P.S. I'd love to hear from you!

Tips for teaching "Bad Habits"

 This chart is in the original key! If you're not already a huge Ed Sheeran fan who started singing the minute you saw this chart hit your inbox, it's worth your time to give it a listen and play the chords along with Ed.

 Some of the chord changes go quickly! Students should be encouraged to take time to practice transitioning between the chords BEFORE trying to play along with the video.

Work to keep the tempo of the chords very steady while singing.
